WEB CO P.DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 5, 7(3) of Lotteries Regulation Act, 1998 in Crime No.623 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 11.07.2024, the respondent police found the first accused in illegal possession of banned lotteries in which the first accused trying to sell the same to the general public illegally. The respondent police was seized the lotteries. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that this petitioner has not sold any lotteries and only based on the confession statement of 1st accused, this petitioner was arrayed as 2nd accused in the case. This petitioner is an innocent person and he had not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the respondent police found the petitioner in illegal possession of banned lotteries. There is one previous case is pending against the petitioner, in which he was released on bail. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offence, this petitioner have one previous case, in which he released on bail and considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Perundurai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
