WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 174(3) of Cr.P.C. @ Section 498(A), 306 of IPC in Crime No.358 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that defacto complainant's daughter was married with the elder son of the petitioner. Out of their wedlock, one female child was born. Due to some misunderstanding and domestic quarrel in house the defacto complainant's daughter and her daughter committed suicide by jumping into well. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the defacto complainant's daughter was married with the elder son of the petitioner. Out of their wedlock, one female child was born. Due to some misunderstanding and domestic quarrel in house the defacto complainant's daughter and her daughter committed suicide by jumping into well and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering that already A1 was secured and co-accused was arrested and released on bail and also considering that no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the
