The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 24.08.2024 for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 329(4), 351(3) of BNS, 2023, and Section 3(1) of TNPPDL Act, in Crime No.28 of 2024, on the file of the respondent, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was previous enmity between the defacto complainant and the accused in respect of village temple festival. While so, on 22.08.2024 at about 08.30 a.m., there was a wordy quarrel, due to which the petitioner along with the other accused, trespassed into the defacto complainant's house, abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him in with weapons and caused injuries and also damaged household articles, home appliances and TATA Ace vehicle and two-wheelers. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been lodged against the petitioner and the petitioner has no previous cases against him. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity with respect to village temple festival, the petitioner along with the other accused, trespassed into the defacto complainant's house, abused him in filthy language, assaulted him with weapons and damaged his household articles, home appliances and TATA Ace van and two-wheeler. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioner. However, she vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side learned counsel and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering that the petitioner has no previous cases pending against him and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also considering that no value of the damaged properties have been mentioned in FIR and also considering the number of days of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Vaniyambadi, and on further conditions that;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

[e] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned

CRL O.P. No.22128 of 2024

Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560]; and [g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
