(Delivered by the Hon'ble Chief Justice)

We have heard Mr.Haja Nazeerudeen, learned Additional Advocate General, assisted by Mr.P.Haribabu, learned Government Advocate for the appellants and Mr.Srinath Sridevan, learned Senior Counsel for Mr.M.S.Murali, learned counsel for the respondent.

reopening the issue of stamp duty paid by the respondent pursuant to the registered instrument.

3. Learned Additional Advocate General submits that the time period of three years provided under Section 33A of the Indian Stamp Act is directory in nature. The same cannot be held to be mandatory. Reliance is placed on the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Inspector General of Registration, Tamil Nadu v. K.Baskaran [(2020) 14 SCC 345].

4. According to learned Additional Advocate General, the Apex Court interpreting Rule 7 of the Tamil Nadu Stamp (Prevention of Undervaluation of Instruments) Rules, 1968 and Section 47-A of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 set aside the judgment of this Court holding that the said provision is mandatory.

5. Per contra, learned Senior Counsel for the respondent submits that the time limit of three years prescribed under Section 33-A of the Indian Stamp Act is mandatory.

6. Relying upon the same judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Inspector General of Registration, Tamil Nadu, supra, learned Senior Counsel submits that the Apex Court held that there are some limitations on the exercise of powers since no proceedings can be initiated against an order passed under Sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 47-A of the Indian Stamp Act, if the time for preferring the appeal against that order has not expired or if more than five years have expired after passing of the order. It is further held that if the period of five years has expired, no suo motu powers can be exercised.

7. Upon hearing the respective counsel, the substratum of the matter is "whether the period of three years as provided under the second proviso to Section 33-A(1) of the Indian Stamp Act for initiation of an enquiry is mandatory or directory?"

11. Section 33-A empowers the authority, if it is found that proper stamp duty payable under the Act in respect of such instrument has not been paid or has been insufficiently paid, to recover such duty or deficit, on a certificate from the Registrar of the district under the Registration Act, from the person liable to pay duty, as the arrear of land revenue. Sub-section (1) of Section 33-A, as such, empowers the authority to take steps for recovery of the stamp duty insufficiently paid or the stamp duty not paid.

12. The authority and power to conduct an enquiry under Section 33-A is circumscribed by two provisos. Second proviso to Section 33-A provides that no such enquiry shall be commenced after the expiry of three years from the date of registration of the instrument. Second proviso is couched in negative language, thereby, putting an embargo on the right of the authority to proceed under Sub-section (1) of Section 33A, after the expiry of three years from the date of registration of the instrument.

13. A mode of showing a clear intention that the provision enacted is mandatory is by clothing the command in a negative form. Prohibitive or negative words can never be directory. The negative words are prohibitory and are ordinarily used as a legislative device to make a provision imperative.

14. The provision having been circumscribed by proviso, thereby putting limitations on the right of the authority to proceed after a period of three years, the authority certainly cannot reopen the proceedings after the expiry of three years.

15. Learned Additional Advocate General also did not dispute that the show cause notices issued to the original writ petitioners were after a lapse of three years of the registration of the documents. The same is an admitted fact. The learned Single Judge has also culled out the dates in the impugned order. The same is

16. In the light of the aforesaid facts and the legal proposition, it will have to be held that the authority did not possess the jurisdiction to issue the show cause notices. The said show cause notices, as such, are coram non iudice.

For the foregoing reasons, the writ appeals are dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, C.M.P.Nos.17023, 17025, 16977, 16978, 17049, 17052, 17053, 17057, 17058, 17059, 17060, 17062, 17074 & 17075 of 2023 are also dismissed.
