The petitioner / Accused, who apprehends arrest in the hand of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of IPC in connection with the Cr. No.286 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 20.05.2024 at about 16.25 hours, the RDO Vaniyambadi and his subordinates were in routine vehicle check up from Ambur to National Highways near Sai Sangeeth Hotel, Sengalikuppam, they found a Lorry bearing Registration No.TN70 Q 1985 was carrying 1 unit of Norambu sand without any valid permit. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent, that he has been falsely implicated in this case, that he had not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the respondent police and he is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would contend that the petitioner has illegally transported 1 unit of Norambu sand without any valid permit on

Q 1985 and it was found by the RDO Vaniyambadi and his subordinates, when they were in routine vehicle check up from Ambur to National Highways near Sai Sangeeth Hotel, Sengalikuppam. Hence he objected for the grant of anticipatory bail. Further he submitted that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the arguments putforth on either side, considering the nature of offences and quantity of materials involved in this case and that no previous case is pending against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate, Ambur on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of
