The petitioners who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 127(2), 132 and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.529 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the de facto complainant had a quarrel and it is alleged that the petitioner has abused the de facto complainant in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submit that the petitioners had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioners had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for their due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners and the de facto complainant had a quarrel and the petitioners have abused and attacked the de facto complainant in filthy language. He further submitted that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and also all the materials were seized and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and considering the relationship between the petitioners and the de facto complainant and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and further, as the injured was discharged from hospital as all the materials were seized and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen
