P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 303(2) of the BNS, 2023 read with Sections 21(1) and 21(4) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.417 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on a complaint given by the de facto complainant, the respondent police found the petitioner along with the other accused illegally uploading 2 units of Quartz out Crop Stone in a vehicle without valid permit or license issued by the Government. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He submitted that the petitioner is the Driver of the JCB vehicle and willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this

WEB COURT and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that petitioner along with the other accused were found illegally uploading 2 units Quartz out Crop Stone without proper license and the materials were seized and there is no previous case as against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also taking into consideration of the fact that the petitioner is only Driver of the JCB vehicle and already the co-accused were secured by the respondent police and that there is no previous case as against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen
