ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 28.06.2024 for the offences under Sections 376(ii)(n) of I.P.C r/w 5(l), 5(j)(ii) and Section 6 of the POCSO Act, 2012 r/w 9 of the Child Marriage Act, 2006, in Crime No.17 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the victim girl are relatives; that the petitioner married the victim girl, who was aged about 12 years and now the victim girl is pregnant. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner and the victim girl are relatives; that the petitioner has been in custody since 28.06.2024 ; that he is a law-abiding citizen; that he is ready to furnish substantial sureties for his due release on bail; and therefore, he prays for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner by stating that the petitioner and the victim girl are relatives; that the petitioner married the victim girl, who was aged about 12 years and now the victim girl is pregnant; that the statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C., has also been recorded from the victim girl.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record including the statement recorded from the victim girl under 164 Cr.P.C.

6. Considering the submissions of the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offences charged against the petitioner, the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, the statement of the victim was recorded by the concerned Magistrate and also considering the statement given by the victim, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
