The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 109, 49 of BNS Act, 2023 in Crime No.216 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there is a civil dispute between the petitioner and the defacto-complainant, on 06.09.2024, the petitioner and other accused persons were abused the defacto-complainant with filthy language and assaulted him and also intimidated with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that this petitioner is an innocent person and he has not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. There is no previous case as against this petitioner. This petitioner was arrayed as 3rd accused. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that due to civil dispute, the petitioner and other accused persons were abused the defacto-complainant with filthy language and assaulted him. In this case, injured person was discharged from hospital. There is no previous case as against this petitioner. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offence and considering that there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner and in this case, the injured person is discharged from hospital and also considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on
