P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 9 of the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 altered as Section 6 of the POCSO Act in Crime No.32 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had married a minor victim girl. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner had married a minor victim girl and that there is no previous case as against the petitioner and also considering the gravity of offences, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering that there is a love affair between the petitioner and the victim girl and the statement of the victim girl under Section 183(5) of the BNS was recorded and further, this Court has perused the statement given by the victim girl and that there is no previous case as against the petitioner and as the injured is discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the District Additional Mahila Court, Perambalur District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
