The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 127(2), 308(2), 118(1) and 351(3) in Crime No.122 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the first accused have attacked and demanded money from the de facto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submit that the petitioners had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioners had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for their due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the first accused and petitioners kidnapped and demanded money from the de facto complainant. He further submitted that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and that there is a previous dispute pending between the parties and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and further, taking into consideration of the fact that the first accused was arrested and released on bail and also the petitioners are not the name accused in the First Information Report (FIR), this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the
