Crl.O.P.No.22650 of 2024

P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 8(c), 20(b)(ii)(A), 25 and 29(1) of the NDPS ACT and 275 and 123 of the BNS Act, 2023, 77 of the Juvenile Justice Act, 6 and 24(1) of the Cigarette and other Tobacco Products Act, 2003 in Crime No.850 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during regular checkup, the petitioner was found in possession of 340 grams of ganja and 10 packets of 10 packets of hans. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He submitted that the petitioner is willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 340 grams of ganja and 10 packets of hans and that there is no previous case as against the petitioner and considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also taking into consideration the quantity of materials seized and since they are not commercial quantity and further, there is no previous case as against the petitioner and also taking into consideration of the fact that the other co-accused were arrested and released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the XV Metropolitan Magistrate, George Town on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the
