4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that while the defaco complainant in his pawn broker shop, two persons came inside his shop and closed his mouth with hands and tried to taken away the jewels from his shop and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and also considering the fact that alleged offence took place in the year 2003 and so far the respondent has not secured the petitioners and also considering that investigation was already completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate No. I, Mannargudi, Thiruvarur on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction
