2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons were found in illegal possession of 6 bottles of brandy, each containing 180 ml. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. She has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. He would further submit that the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody for more than 15 days and is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused persons were found in illegal possession of 6 bottles of brandy, each containing 180 ml. He further submitted that the petitioner has no previous cases, pending against her. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the nature of offence, quantity involved and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, and though the petitioner has no previous cases, pending against her, and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Tirukoyilur, and on further conditions that:-

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of four weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.
