in their failure to file a reply within the stipulated time. While so, without providing any opportunity to the petitioner, the respondent passed the impugned orders, which are in violation of the principles of natural justice. The learned counsel would also submit that the petitioner had already deposited more than 10% of tax before the authority concerned.

3. Heard the learned Government Advocate (Taxes) appearing for the first respondent, and the learned Senior Standing Counsel for the second respondent, who made their submissions supporting the orders impugned herein.

4. It is evident from the pleadings and the documents placed before this Court that the respondent passed the orders, which are impugned herein without providing an opportunity of personal hearing to the petitioner and hence, the same is in violation of the principles of natural justice. According to the petitioner, they had already paid more than 10% of the tax before the authority concerned.

5. In view of the above, this Court is of the opinion that it is just and necessary to provide an opportunity to the Petitioner to establish their case on merits and in accordance with law. Accordingly, the orders impugned
