Crl.O.P.No.22602 of 2024

WEB CO P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 275, 123 of BNS Act, 2023 and Sec 24(1) of Cigarette and Other Tobacco products Act 2003 in Crime No.77 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused were found in possession of Hans-19 Pockets (Property worth about Rs. 380/-) Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner and other accused were found in possession of Hans-19 Pockets (Property worth about Rs. 380/-) and eight previous case is pending against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also considering the fact that the co-accused was released on bail and though some previous cases are pending against the petitioner, in all cases already bail was granted, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the District Magistrate/Judicial Magistrate, Kattumanarkoil, Cuddalore on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-
