The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 329(3), 296(b), 351(2) of BNS 2023 and Section 3(1) of Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevention of damage & loss) Act, 1992 in Crime No.277 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other person trespassed into the land of the defacto complainant, insulted and threatened to kill the workers of the defacto complainant and damaged the entire plantation and the concrete wall put up by the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner and other person trespassed into the land of the defacto complainant, insulted and threatened to kill the workers of the defacto complainant and damaged the entire plantation and the concrete wall put up by the defacto complainant and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering that there is a dispute between the parties in respect of fencing of land and also considering the fact that the co-accused was arrested and released on bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
