The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 8(c), 20(b)(ii)(A) of NDPS Act and 77 of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015 and 132 of BNS and in Crime No.960 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused persons were found in illegal possession of 120 grams of ganja. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He submitted that the petitioner is willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with the other accused persons was found in illegal possession of 670 grams of ganja and the materials were seized and there is no previous case as against the petitioner and considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also taking into consideration the quantity of materials seized and that there is no previous case as against the petitioner and further, taking into consideration of the fact that the other co-accused persons were arrested and released on bail and also taking into consideration of the fact that the petitioner was arrayed as accused only based on the confession statement of the other co-accused, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the XV
