2.It is the case of the prosecution that the complaint had been received that these petitioners had received a sum of Rs.30/- Lakhs from the defacto complainant consequent to a Lease Agreement entered into by the defacto complainant with these petitioners on 13.04.2019. It is stated that neither the money had been returned back nor the property had been given for lease.

3.It is also noted that this matter had been listed again and again and during the hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioners had undertaken to make good at least part amount to be paid to the defacto complainant, but today again there is no appearance.
