The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS Act in Crime No.177 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and his brother were found that the Peepal Tree branch interrupt the heavy vehicles traveling in the Ramapuram Main road and they attempted to cut the branch of the tree. At that time, the petitioner intercepted them and made objection to cut the tree and abused them with filthy words and assaulted them with wooden log. As a result, defacto complainant and his brother sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to some dispute in respect of cutting tree, the petitioner and the defacto complainant assaulted each other, due to that defacto complainant sustained injuries. However, injured was discharged from the hospital, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering that there is a dispute between the parties in respect of cutting the tree and also considering the fact that injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the
