The petitioners who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Section 191(2), 296(b), 115(2) and 118(1) of the BNS in Crime No.226 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the de facto complainant had wordy quarrel with regard to pathway dispute during which the de facto complainant was accused in filthy language, abused and threatened. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submit that the petitioners had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioners had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that they are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for their due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that a wordy quarrel arouse between the petitioners and de facto complainant with regard to pathway dispute, as a result of which the de facto complainant was abused, attacked and threatened and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and as the injured was discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate, Palacode on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (each) (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the
