ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 23.08.2024 for the offences under Sections 406, 420, 294(b), 506(i) of the IPC in Crime No.153 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de facto complainant and the petitioner are friends; that the petitioner demanded a two wheeler from the de facto complainant; that the de facto complainant obtained finance in his name and presented a two-wheeler, namely a Yamaha Fasino, in his own funds to the petitioner; and thereafter, the petitioner had not paid the monthly dues and cheated the de facto complainant. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner has been in custody since 23.08.2024; that he is a law-abiding citizen; that he is ready to furnish substantial sureties for his due release on bail; and therefore, he prays for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner cheated the de facto complainant by not paying the EMI to the tune of Rs.1,00,000/-; and that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made by both sides, that the dispute between the parties, in respect of purchase of a bike and the payment of EMI, and also that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner, and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Jayankondam and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the Jurisdictional Magistrate at 10.30 a.m., on every Monday for a period of four weeks;

[b] the petitioner shall attend in accordance with the conditions of the bond;

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[e] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the Petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court
