The petitioner/accused No.1, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 27.08.2024 for the offence punishable under Section 4(1)(i), r/w 4(1)(A) of TNP Act in Crime No.256 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was caught by the police with 50 grams of Cannabis and it was kept by the petitioner for the purpose of sale to the general public. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

CRL O.P. No.23775 of 2024

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner was caught by the police with 50 grams of Cannabis and it was kept by the petitioner for the purpose of sale to the general public. and three previous cases are pending against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side counsels and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representations made by both sides and nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also considering the contraband involved in this case is not a commercial quantity and though the petitioner is having some previous case and those are not a similar kind of cases and in all the cases, the petitioner was already released on bail and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
