3.The grievance of the petitioner is that his terminal benefits were settled based on the pre-revised pay instead of the revised pay and that his difference in leave salary has to be paid as per the revised pay. Pension arrears, PF arrears, leave salary, gratuity and commutation have not been settled to the petitioner till date. Hence, the petitioner sent representation dated 26.08.2023 to the respondents seeking for payment of terminal benefits with interest. Since the same did not evoke any response, the petitioner has come with the present writ petition for the relief sought for above.

4.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel for the 1st respondent and the learned Standing Counsel for the 2nd respondent.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the materials available on record, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the 2nd respondent Corporation to pay the eligible amount with interest at the rate of 6% per annum for the delay period in settling the terminal benefits. This payment shall be made within a period of six

It is made clear that if the amount is not paid within the time frame fixed by this Court, it will fetch an interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date on which the amount became due and payable till the date of actual realisation.

6.The petitioner is directed to submit a fresh representation to the 2nd respondent along with a copy of this order. No costs.
