WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 6(4) of TN Scheduled Commodities (RDCS) order, 1982 and 7(1)(a)(ii) of Essential Commodities Act, 1955 in Crime No.29 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that while the respondent police were involved in vehicle check up, on suspicion, they intercepted the vehicle bearing registration No. TN-67-AZ-1897 and on checking the vehicle, they found 80 Bags X 40 Kgs (total weighing 3200 Kgs) of PDS Rice worth about Rs.18,080/- and it was came to know that this petitioner and the other accused had involved in selling of PDS rice to the general public for higher price. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner and the other accused had involved in selling of PDS rice to the general public for higher price and their vehicle was found with 80 Bags X 40 Kgs (total weighing 3200 Kgs) of PDS Rice worth about Rs.18,080/- and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also considering the fact that the co-accused was arrested and released on bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the
