2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that this Court may direct the respondent to consider and pass orders on the petitioners representation dated 05.07.2024 within the stipulated time as fixed by this Court.

3. The learned Standing Counsel for the respondents submitted that the electricity connection has already been disconnected and he has to challenge the order of disconnection. Without doing so, filing the present writ petition is not maintainable.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

5. On perusal of the affidavit, it is seen that the petitioner himself admitted that the electricity connection has been disconnected. In such background, there is no question to consider the representation of the petitioner. If at all the petitioner aggrieved, he has to challenge the order of disconnection.
