Crl.O.P. No.23745 of 2024

WEB CO P.DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 9(B)(1)(b) of the Indian Explosives Act 1884 and the same is now altered into section 5 of the Indian Explosives Substances Act, 1908, in Crime No.148 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the Village Administrative Officer lodged a complaint and alleging that there were explosives materials stored in the land belonged to the first accused premises. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that this petitioner is a licensed person and competent to deal with the explosives meant for blasting the rocks. This petitioner is an innocent person and he had not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. There is no previous case as against this petitioner. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the Village Administrative Officer lodged a complaint and alleging that there were explosives materials stored in the land belonged to the first accused premises. In this case, 2nd accused was arrested and subsequently released on bail. There is no previous case as against this petitioner. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offence and considering that there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner, the petitioner is having valid certificate to deal with the explosives meant for blasting the rocks, in this case Accused No.2 was arrested and subsequently released on bail and also considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

Crl.O.P. No.23745 of 2024

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sathyamangalam, Erode District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.00a.m. for the period of 4 weeks;

[b] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the prior permission of the Court.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
