The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Section 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) BNS & 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.1059 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during temple festival, wordy quarrel arose between the petitioners and the defacto complainant's father. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners joined together and assaulted the defacto complainant by using wooden log and hands. Thereafter, they pushed down the wife of the defacto complainant, assaulted by using hands and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are an innocent person and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that during temple festival, wordy quarrel arose between the petitioners and the defacto complainant's father. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners joined together and assaulted the defacto complainant by using wooden log and hands. Thereafter they pushed down the wife of the defacto complainant, assaulted by using hands and threatened with dire consequences and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and injured was also discharged from hospital and considering that there is dispute between the parties in respect of temple festivals and no previous case is pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
