Crl.O.P. No.23780 of 2024

P. DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 109 of BNS Act in Crime No.607 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that this petitioner and other accused persons were abused and assaulted the defacto-complaint by using knife. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend this petitioner is only arrayed as 3rd accused. This petitioner is an innocent person and he had not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that this petitioner and other accused persons were abused and assaulted the defacto-complaint by using knife. There is one previous case is pending against the petitioner, in that case he was released on bail. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offence and considering that injured person was discharged from hospital, this petitioner is having one previous case, in that case he was released on bail and also considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned X Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, Chennai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
