WEB CO P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 294(b), 307 of IPC in Crime No.37 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, assaulted with deadly weapons and caused grievous injuries and also threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, assaulted with deadly weapons and caused grievous injuries and also threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences and one previous case is pending against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering that the injured was discharged from hospital and though one previous case is pending against the petitioner, in that case also he was released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the

Learned II Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore on condition that the
