The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Section 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of the B.N.S., 2023 in Crime No.368 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and the petitioner's family are relatives. Due to some dispute in respect of land, wordy quarrel arose between the defacto complainant and the petitioners. While so, petitioners abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, assaulted and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are an innocent person and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to some dispute in respect of land, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, assaulted and threatened with dire consequences and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and relation between the parties and also considering the fact that injured was discharged from hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen
