Crl.O.P. No.24116 of 2024

P. DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 8C, 20(b)(ii)(B) of NDPS Act in Crime No.9 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the respondent police conducted check up, at that time, they found that the petitioner in illegal possession of 1Kg.350 grams of ganja. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that this petitioner is an innocent person and he had not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. There is no previous case as against this petitioner. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the respondent police found the petitioner in illegal possession of 1Kg. 350 grams of Ganja. Already, the 1st and 6th accused were arrested and subsequently released on bail. There is no recovery was made in this petitioner. There is no previous case against this petitioner. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offence and the quantity of material involved in this case is not a commercial quantity, the 1st and 6th accused were arrested and they subsequently released on bail, there is no recovery was made from this petitioner, there is no previous case against this petitioner and also considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned X Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, Chennai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition
