ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested on 20.08.2024 and remanded to judicial custody on the same day for the offences under Sections 420 of IPC and 66 C of IT Act, in Crime No. 20 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transferred the amount to the tune of Rs.6,46,000/- from the account of the defacto complainant using his mobile phone and through 34 transactions of Phonepe on various occasions. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and he has been falsely implicated in this case and he is a law-abiding citizen and he is ready to furnish substantial sureties for his due release on bail; therefore, he prays for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) objected for granting bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner has illegally transferred the amount to the tune of Rs.6,46,000/- from the account of the defacto complainant using his mobile phone and through 34 transactions of Phonepe on various occasions and there is no previous case against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are relatives and taking advantage of that, the petitioner has committed the above said offences.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made on both sides and also considering the relationship between the parties and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and also the petitioner has no previous case, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

[a]. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on
