WEB CODE P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 294(b), 354, 354A, 417, 120B of IPC and Section 4 of TN Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002 in Crime No.10 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to some matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, the petitioner used filthy language against the defacto complainant and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to some matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, the petitioner used filthy language against the defacto complainant and threatened with dire consequences and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and already investigation was completed and also considering the date of FIR and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the IX Metropolitan Magistrate, Saidapet, Chennai on condition that the
