WEB CO P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 4(1)(a) r/w 4(1-A) of TN Prohibition Act in Crime No.21 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegally possession of 10 liters of ID Arrack country made. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

CrI.O.P.No.24399 of 2024

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found in illegally possession of 10 liters of ID Arrack country made and one previous case is pending against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and quantity of materials involved in this case and considering that only based on the confession statement of the co-accused, this petitioner is arrayed as accused in this case and already investigation is completed and awaiting lap report and considering that though some previous case is pending against the petitioner, in that case he was released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the
