Crl.O.P. No.24301 of 2024

P. DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 351(2), 316(2) and 318(4) of BNS in Crime No.479 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto-complainant and the petitioner are the family friends. The petitioner and her husband approached the defacto-complainant and requested to pay some amount as hand loan. The defacto-complainant paid Rs.5,58,000/- to the petitioner and her husband. The defacto-complainant repeatedly demand them to repay the amount, but the petitioner and her husband did not repay the amount. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that this petitioner is an innocent person and she had not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. There is no previous case as against this petitioner. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner and her husband borrowed some amount from the defacto-complainant and they failed to repay the same. There is no previous case as against this petitioner. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offence and there is money dispute between the Defacto-complainant and the petitioner, there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner and also considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Tiruvallur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
