This petition has been filed to implead the petitioners herein as the second respondent in W.P.No.27809 of 2023 and pass orders.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that they are interested party to this writ petition and they have to be heard. He further submits that the respondents 1 and 2 herein have been regularly making attempts to introduce innovation to the temple practices which requires interference by this Court.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the respondents/writ petitioners objected to allow this impleading petition and they have filed their counter wherein they have stated that the petitioners are neither necessary nor proper parties to the writ petition and impleading them would necessarily diver the writ petition to a different tangent.
