4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners have damaged the property of the defacto complainant and stolen the belongings of defacto complainant worth about Rs.10 lakhs and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and also considering that already investigation was completed and absconding charge sheet was also filed against the petitioners and no previous case is pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate No. II, Arakkonam on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
