the District Legal Services Authority had submitted that the amount has been credited to the District Legal Services Authority, Salem. Thereafter, the victim's family, i.e., Parameshwari, w/o Late Shanmugam, Kavishram and Suganya, children of Late Shanmugam had refused to receive the compensation amount and submitted a letter dated 24.02.2025 stating that they are not willing to accept the compensation amount which was to be disbursed under Victim compensation proceedings in VCP No.16/2024. Hence, the District Legal Services Authority was unable to comply with the Order of the High Court and had filed a letter in D.No.1878 of 2025 dated 08.05.2025 in connection with Crl.O.P.No.26309 of 2025 dated 14.11.2024 informing that in the Tamil Nadu Victim Compensation Scheme, 2013, there is no procedure to re-credit the amount when the victim refused to receive the compensation amount. This Court again directed the Inspector of Police, Annadanapatty Police station, to find out or verify from victim Parameshwari, wife of late. Shanmugam, whether she is willing to receive the compensation amount, for which the letter dated 31.07.2025 has been issued by the Victim Parameshwari, which is as follows:
