from 05.09.2024 and is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) opposes the grant of bail to the petitioners by stating that break open the door and entered into defacto complainant's shop and stolen goods worth about Rs.19,500/-. He further submitted that there is 10 previous case against the first petitioner and 2 previous case pending against the second petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. .Considering the representation made on both sides, nature of the case and the quantity of material involved in this case, the petitioners have some previous cases, in all cases, bail was granted to the petitioners, and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:
