WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Section 303(2) and 326(a) of BNS in Crime No.234 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were illegally transported 1/2 unit of sand in tractor. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are an innocent person and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners were illegally transported 1/2 unit of sand in tractor and one previous case is pending against the petitioners and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and quantity of materials involved in this case and considering that though one previous case is pending against the petitioners, in that cases also, they were released on bail and also considering that the petitioners are having valid permission to transport the sand, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate, Katpadi on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
