The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 309(4) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.435 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused caught hold the defacto complainant and snatched his golden ring weighting two grams. Further, the accused have transferred a sum of Rs.28,000/- from the defacto complainant's bank account to other account and fled away. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
