The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 292, 296(b), 132 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 in Crime No.728 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that while the second grade police officer on duty, advocate Mr.Jayavaradhan parked his car at road side nearest to the gate. The officer came and told the petitioner to take the car from that place in respect manner, as it was the way for the Police Officer's vehicle, but the petitioner refused that and scolded him and wordy quarrel arose between them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that while the second grade police officer on duty, advocate Mr.Jayavaradhan parked his car at road side nearest to the gate. The officer came and told the petitioner to take the car from that place in respect manner, as it was the way for the Police Officer's vehicle, but the petitioner refused that and scolded him and wordy quarrel arose between them and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering that no previous case is pending against the petitioner and nobody was injured in this case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Learned Judicial Magistrate, Madhavaram, Thiruvallur on condition
