The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 03.09.2024, for the offences punishable under Section 105(ii) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.358 of 2024, on the file of the respondent, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, under the influence of intoxication, drove a BMW car bearing Regn.No.HR-55-HT-8628, in a rash and negligent manner and dashed against five vehicles and thereafter, fled away with the car from the place of occurrence, due to which two persons died. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the petitioner has been in custody from 03.09.2024. He would further submit that there is no previous case against the petitioner and the petitioner is also ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner, under the influence of alcohol, drove the car in a rash and negligent manner and dashed against five vehicles and fled from the place of occurrence, due to which two pedestrians died. He would further submit that investigation was almost completed and there is no previous case against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard both side learned counsel and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and that no previous case is pending against him, considering the number of days of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Omalur, and on further conditions that;

[b] the Petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of 30 days and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the Petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the Petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

[e] the Petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the Petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560]; and

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
