The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Section 296(b), 115(2), 108 of BNS Act in Crime No.579 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the mother of the deceased and the first petitioner had borrowed money from the defacto complainant and when the same was demanded by her, the petitioners came to the house of the defacto complainant and abused the defacto complainant and her son with filthy language and also assaulted them by using chappal and also abusively spoken about the character of the defacto complainant and induced the son of the complainant to commit suicide. Due to the mental agony, the son of the complainant consumed poison and committed suicide. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are an innocent person and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and her son with filthy language and also assaulted them by using chappal and also abusively spoken about the character of the defacto complainant and induced the son of the complainant to commit suicide. Due to the mental agony, the son of the complainant consumed poison and committed suicide and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and that there is a money dispute pending between the parties and already co-accused was arrested and released on bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner and this Court also perused the CD files of this case and considering all other factors, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate No. 2, Villupuram on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 A.M. until further orders.

[b] the petitioners shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts of the Court or to any police officer.

[c] the petitioners shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.
