WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 498(A) of IPC in Crime No.11 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the wife of the petitioner. They married on 12.09.2012. Due to some family dispute between them, the petitioner assaulted and demanded dowry from the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner further submits that name of the respondent is wrongly mentioned as All women Police Station, Thiruvallur District instead of All Women Police Station,

Poonamalle.
