The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 140(2), 310(2) of BNS 2023 in Crime No.598 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and his father owns a jewelery shop. The defacto complainant was warned by first accused to repay the debt of Rs.32,00,000/- to one Parthiban. While so, on 27.07.2024, the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped the defacto complainant and his brother to a remote place, threatened, assaulted and caused injuries to them and robbed a sum of Rs.10,00,000/- from them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped the defacto complainant and his brother to a remote place, threatened, assaulted and caused injuries to them and robbed a sum of Rs.10,00,000/- from them and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and co-accused was already arrested and released on bail and also considering that there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate No. 1, Thiruvannamalai on condition that the
