WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 417, 420, 406, 506(I) & 109 of IPC in Crime No.09 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other three accused have illegally created documents to grab the property of the defacto complainant and also threatened the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that petitioner along with other three accused have illegally created documents to grab the property of the defacto complainant and also threatened the defacto complainant and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of allegation leveled against the petitioner and even as per the prosecution, this petitioner is only introduced A3 to obtain the alleged sale deed from the defacto complainant and also considering that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and also considering the transactions between the parties, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate No. II, Krishnagiri on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
