4. Learned Government Advocate opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner by stating that statement under Section 183 of BNSS, has also been recorded from the victim girl, wherein, she had reiterated the contention of the F.I.R. He further submit that investigation has been completed and the petitioner has no previous case, pending against him.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record including the statement recorded from the victim girl under Section 183 of BNSS,

6. Considering the submissions of the learned counsel on either side, and the nature of offence charged against the petitioner, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, and taking note of the statement recorded from the victim girl under Section 183 of BNSS, and the petitioner has no previous case, pending against him and investigation has been completed, and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
