Crl.O.P. No.25047 of 2024

P. DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS and Section 3(1) of TNPPDL Act, Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.395 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto-complainant has running his family through shepherd work and there was a property dispute pending between the defacto-complainant and the 1st and 3rd petitioner, due to which they assaulted the defacto-complainant and he sustained injury. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that these petitioners are innocent persons and they have not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. There is no previous case as against these petitioners. Hence, he seek anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there is a property dispute pending between the defacto-complainant and the petitioners, due to which they assaulted the defacto-complainant and he sustained injury. In this case, the injured person was discharged from hospital. The co-accused were arrested and subsequently released on bail. There is no previous case against these petitioners. There is a case in counter pending against the Defacto-complainant. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offence and considering that there was a property dispute between the parties, the injured person was discharged from hospital, already co-accused was arrested and released on bail, there is a case in counter pending against the defacto-complainant, there is no previous case against these petitioners and also considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the
